Please complete the study plan by inserting in the yellow cells your personal data (first left cells) and the acronyms of the courses you want to include in the study plan. Do not modify the other cells. The other sheets host the exams you can use to fill Group A, Group C, or free choice exam cells. If you choose exams from the "All exams" list, just fill in the acronyms in the yellow cells of the first rows. In case instead you want to pick up exams which are not from our master course, fill in their names, codes and credits in the last rows of the "free exam" section. All sections include a summary of the credits needed/obtained, which is automatically accomplished. The correct study plan should be used in the address indicated on the web.
